Summary of Legislation: This bill appropriates $500,000 to the Millennium Task Force.

Effective Date: July 1, 1999.

Explanation of State Expenditures: This bill appropriates $500,000 from the General Fund to the Millennium Task Force between July 1, 1999 and ending June 30, 2001.

Executive Order 97-34 established the Task Force, which is charged with the consideration of the following four points:

1. What about Indiana's past has brought it to its present place and condition;
2. What and where are Hoosiers today as individuals in community;
3. What is Indiana's vision for the future, specifically in 2016, its Bicentennial Year; and
4. What can and will Indiana do to reach its vision of the future.

The mission of the Task Force is to encourage communities to survey Indiana's heritage, create programs to prepare Hoosiers for the Twenty-first Century, create time capsules, and build or preserve monuments to mark the time capsules. The Task Force will also cooperate with any initiative relating to the establishment or development of a Heritage Study Committee that may be authorized by the General Assembly.

The Task Force is comprised of the following members:

- a. One member of the Senate
- b. One member of the House of Representatives
- c. One representative experienced in local government
- d. One representative from the State Museum, Department of Natural Resources
- e. One representative from the Arts Commission
- f. One representative from the Division of Tourism
- g. One or more representatives from the Department of Education
- h. One or more representatives from the Governor's Office
- I. One representative from the Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana
- j. One representative from the university community
- k. One representative from the Humanities Council
- l. Honorary representative
- m. Representatives of the state at large

The First Lady of the State serves as Chairperson of the Task Force. The Task Force has been meeting for approximately one year.
